A DAY OF COMMUNITY, CELEBRATION, AND PATRIOTISM

June 14 was a full day at Sacramento Elks Lodge #6 — and a wonderful example of what makes our Lodge special.

Members and guests enjoyed breakfast, visited the Farmer’s Market, participated in our Doggie Costume Contest, attended our annual Flag Day Ceremony, joined us for the Town Hall discussion, and wrapped up the day with a barbecue and fellowship.

One of the highlights of the day was our Flag Day Ceremony, where we were honored to welcome Scout Troop 1510 to participate in the presentation of the flags. Their professionalism, respect, and pride in carrying our nation’s colors added a special touch to the ceremony and reminded us of the importance of passing our traditions and values to future generations.

As America enters its 250th year, it felt especially fitting to gather as a community to celebrate both our country and the spirit of service that brings people together. The Elks have observed Flag Day for more than a century, and we were proud to continue that tradition.

What made the day memorable was seeing members connecting, sharing ideas, asking questions at the Town Hall, volunteering, laughing together, and enjoying everything our Lodge has to offer.

Thank you to everyone who attended, volunteered, cooked, organized, participated in the activities, or spent time with fellow members. June 14 was a reminder that the strength of our Lodge comes from the members who show up, come together and get involved, and make it a place worth celebrating.

ELKS #6 AWARDS GOLF SCHOLARSHIPS

On June 6, the Elks Lodge #6 Golf Club awarded scholarships to two young women and two young men who were graduating high school seniors, played golf in their school’s golf program, achieved academic excellence, and were college bound.

These young women and men are truly the best examples of our youth demonstrating outstanding community service and leadership.

Each of their applications were judged and scored by considering their classes and grades; volunteer and community service work; honors and awards; positions of leadership; activities and organizations of participation and their duration; an essay; and letters of recommendation from a faculty member and a coach.

The scholarships were awarded to:

Vicki Phan ($4000), Monterey Trail High School, who will be studying Psycho-Biology at UCLA.

Emily Tu ($3,000), Monterey Trail High School, who will be studying Civil Engineering at UC Irvine.

Justin Nguyen ($2,000), Monterey Trail High School, who plans to major in Music at Cosumnes River College.

Michael Chargin ($1,000), Christian Brothers High School, who will be studying Environmental Science at CSU San Marcos.

We were thrilled to present these awards to these deserving recipients. We wish them continued success in their pursuit of scholastic excellence, hitting long straight drives, and low golf scores.

CHAPLAIN'S PRAYER CORNER

Heavenly Father,

As we celebrate our nation's independence and prepare to mark 250 years of American freedom, we give thanks for the blessings of liberty and the opportunities we share.

We remember with gratitude the veterans and service members whose courage and sacrifice have helped preserve those freedoms. Bless them and their families with strength, peace, and comfort.

Guide us as Elks to live our principles of Charity, Justice, Brotherly Love, and Fidelity, serving our communities and one another with grateful hearts.

May God bless our Lodge, our veterans, and the United States of America.

Amen

PER CLAZIE RECEIVES CHEA HONORS

On June 2, PER Stephen B. Clazie was awarded two California-Hawaii Elks Association (CHEA) Special Citations. Clazie was recognized for his 23 stories published in 15 issues of the Pocket News as well as a story he wrote that won in the Best Event Brochure category.

ER Carol "Coach" Mitchell presented him with his awards and referred to Clazie as the Lodge's "Story Teller."

This marks the third consecutive year Lodge #6 and Clazie have earned CHEA Public Relations honors.
